Welcome To

Woodlawn

Woodlawn

Goodwood, Ontario

Nestled on 50 spectacular acres of rolling land, this classic French Country Chateau is bordered by a majestic century-old Maple forest. The private winding tree-lined laneway invites curiosity about what's just around the corner. As you pass the private gatehouse and look further up the lane, you'll notice ... just behind a line of trees a wonderful barn that includes an open staircase to the studio above.

Traveling further up the lane you reach your destination and take great pleasure, driving under the stone porte cochere as your eyes take in the stone façade of the Chateau and of the large cobblestoned courtyard.

This home is a breathtaking interpretation of a classic French Country Chateau. Built in 1997 and designed by well-known architect, John Vanstone. The owner's exposure to French architecture on their many visits to France, enabled them to create a fabulous interpretation of a classic Provincial French Chateau. The exterior of the home, porte cochere and two-car attached garage is constructed of Wiarton stone and complemented by a steep cedar shake roof.

The old-world appeal of the reclaimed wood floors and grand stone floors in the kitchen, solarium and family room accentuates the unique features of a French Chateau. The home is rich in custom detailing including lavish stones, rich woods, cathedral ceilings, mouldings, exposed beams and spectacular country windows.

The setting is truly magnificent and features miles of trails leading to high picturesque rolling pasturelands and a mature maple forest. The privacy is quite exceptional as the home is invisible from the road.

The home is positioned on a gentle rise overlooking the gardens, pool, lawns, pond and forest. There is more to see from the massive windows than the eye can take in all at once. It's quite mesmerizing and with southern exposure, the home is filled with natural light.

Careful attention to the landscaping around the estate including a masterfully crafted stone patio and retaining walls, water garden, woodland gardens, perennial gardens, swimming pool area and spring fed pond captures the essence of a French countryside manor.

Located just 45-minutes from downtown Toronto, the owner enjoys the best of both worlds. So close to a major urban centre and yet far removed from the hectic pace of city life.
